

JCI UK 2019 National Team Roles & Responsibilities: Growth & Development Director

Focus of the role:

- Lead activities that focus on membership growth and engagement.
- Provide project and development capacity to the National Team.

Opportunities to Step Up:

- Create a 'growth and development' working group to consider key priorities including:
 - a) devising a 5-year strategic plan for JCI UK based on the strategic themes of the global plan;
 - b) identify key activities and projects to help grow JCI UK;
 - c) talent spot examples of good practice and help share that across the country.
- Support the Deputy National President with the Chamber Taskforce that focuses on providing support to existing chambers and helps potential new emerging chambers.
- Consider ways to better connect our members e.g. explore the appetite for a member 'directory' and sector related forums.

Time commitment outside of National Board meetings:

- Evening and weekend meetings, conference calls, emails etc with local chambers on an individual basis as well as with working/task and finish groups.

Key skills:

- Project management and co-ordination.
- A good motivator.
- Communication & presentations skills.
- Networking & relationship building skills.
- Delegation.
- Negotiation skills.
